Vibration of Space

Waddington Custot Gallery, London

Patrick Heron believed that "for the non-figurative painters, space itself has become the subject". This show traces his exchanges with Pierre Soulages, Hans Hartung and Nicolas de Staël in Paris, especially around the manipulation of illusory space and the materiality of paint, as European artists attempted to forge a new abstraction. waddingtoncustot.com 020 7851 2200, May 25-July 9
